INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Asha for Education
Covina, California

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Asha for Education (a California nonprofit organization) (the "Organization"), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2025, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Organization as of December 31, 2025, and the changes in its net assets, its functional expenses, and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Organization and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we

- exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited the Organization's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2024, and we expressed an unmodified opinion on those financial statements in our report dated May 8, 2025. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented with the financial statements herein as of and for the year ended December 31, 2024, is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

Note 1 – Nature of the Organization

Asha for Education (the “Organization”) is a secular organization dedicated to change in India by focusing on basic education in the belief that education is a critical requisite for socio-economic change. Its focus on children's education has galvanized a number of volunteers across the globe. As of December 31, 2025, the Organization has 37 chapters worldwide: 29 in the United States, 3 in India, 4 in Europe, and 1 in Canada. In 2025, the Organization opened a new student chapter at the University of Connecticut.

In 2023, the Organization opened a virtual chapter called Asha Beyond Borders. This virtual chapter is for volunteers who live in areas without a local chapter through which to engage. The virtual chapter operates exactly like any other chapter in every respect and has volunteers from across the United States.

The Organization is primarily funded by individual and corporate donations, and the proceeds of chapter-sponsored special events. Volunteers in each of the chapters take personal interest in identifying education-related projects in India and supporting those projects through funds and other means.

As part of the Organization’s charter, all chapters operate with a high degree of autonomy in identifying, researching, supporting, and managing projects. However, collaboration among chapters and volunteers remains a core aspect of the Organization’s work. This cooperation is demonstrated through joint project ownership, cross-chapter focus groups, discussions on key issues, and global initiatives such as the Asha-wide Conference, Work-An-Hour campaign, and the Asha India Conference.

In keeping with this focus, volunteers are involved with and support projects in India that are secular and have an education-related component to them. The Organization’s objectives are:

1. To provide education to underprivileged children in India.
2. To encourage the formation of various local groups across the world to reach out to larger sections of the population.
3. To support and cooperate with persons and groups already engaged in similar activities.
4. To raise the required human and other resources to achieve the group objectives.
5. To provide opportunities to individuals living outside India who wish to participate in Asha activities in India.
6. To address, whenever possible, other issues affecting human life such as health care, the environment, socio-economic aspects, and women’s issues.

The accompanying financial statements include the accounts of the Organization and its chapters located in the United States. International affiliates located in Canada, Europe, and India are not included because the Organization does not have a controlling financial interest in, or control over, these entities, which operate independently.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”) where revenues and gains are recognized when earned, and expenses and losses are recognized when incurred.

Basis of Presentation

The financial statement presentation follows the guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) in its Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-14 Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statements for Not-for-Profit Entities. Under ASU 2016-14, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: net assets without donor restrictions and net assets with donor restrictions.

Comparative Financial Information

The accompanying financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with U.S. GAAP. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with our audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2024, from which the summarized information was derived.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Organization considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents.

Contributions Receivable

Contributions receivable that are expected to be collected within one year are recorded at net realizable value. Contributions receivable expected to be collected in future years are initially recorded at fair value using present value techniques incorporating risk-adjusted discount rates designed to reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset. In subsequent years, amortization of the discounts is included in contribution revenue in the statement of activities. Based on historical experience, an assessment of economic conditions, and a review of subsequent collections, management expects all such contributions to be collectible. Accordingly, an allowance for uncollectible contributions has not been established as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Investments

Investment purchases are recorded at cost, or if donated, at fair value on the date of donation. Thereafter, investments are reported at their fair values in the statement of financial position. Net investment return/(loss) is reported in the statement of activities and consists of interest and dividend income, realized and unrealized capital gains and losses, less external and direct internal investment expenses.

Net Assets

Net assets, revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor or grantor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

- Net Assets without Donor Restrictions: Net assets for use in general operations and not subject to donor (or certain grantor) restrictions. The Board of Directors may designate a portion of net assets without donor restrictions for specific purposes.
- Net Assets with Donor Restrictions: Net assets subject to donor (or certain grantor) imposed restrictions. Some restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor or grantor. Other restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor or grantor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity. All donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions, depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

All contributions are considered available for general use, unless specifically restricted by donor or subject to other legal restrictions.

Revenue and Revenue Recognition

The Organization recognizes revenue in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 958-605, Not-for-Profit Entities – Revenue Recognition. Contributions are recognized when cash, securities, or other assets, an unconditional promise to give, or a notification of a beneficial interest is received. Conditional contributions, which contain both a measurable performance obligation or other barrier and a right of return, are not recognized as revenue until the conditions are substantially met or explicitly waived.

Special event revenue consists of both contribution revenue and exchange transaction revenue. The contribution portion is recognized when received or unconditionally promised, and the exchange portion is recognized when the related event occurs. Revenue derived from special events is reported separately as (1) contributions, representing the portion received for which there is no commensurate value exchanged, and (2) exchange transaction revenue, representing the fair value of goods and services provided to attendees. The costs of direct benefits to donors are presented separately in the statement of activities.

Conference revenue, consisting of registration fees from the Organization's biannual educational conference, is recognized when the event takes place.

Contributed Nonfinancial Assets

The Organization recognizes contributed nonfinancial assets at fair value on the date of donation. Contributed services are recognized if they (1) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (2) require specialized skills, are provided by individuals possessing those skills, and would typically need to be purchased if not donated. Contributed services are recorded based on the estimated fair value of comparable services.

Volunteer time provided in other capacities is not recognized in the financial statements because it does not meet the criteria for recognition under U.S. GAAP.

Donated Securities

The Organization receives donations of publicly traded securities, which are recorded as contributions at fair value upon receipt. In accordance with the Organization's policy, donated securities are liquidated as soon as practicable. Proceeds from the sale of donated securities are classified as cash and used in support of the Organization's mission.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of providing the program services and other activities are presented in the statement of functional expenses and summarized in the statement of activities. Program and supporting services are charged with their direct expenses when applicable. Certain categories of expenses are attributed to both program and supporting services; therefore, when applicable, expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. The Organization's allocated expenses consist of donated services, which are evaluated based on the nature of the service provided.

Income Tax Status

The Organization is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and related California code sections. However, the Organization is subject to income taxes on unrelated business income unless otherwise excluded under IRC provisions. The Organization is considered a public charity and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation under IRC Section 509(a)(2).

Management has processes presently in place to ensure maintenance of the Organization's tax-exempt statuses; to identify and report unrelated business income; to determine the filing and tax obligations for which the Organization has nexus; and to identify and evaluate other matters that may be considered tax positions. Management has evaluated the tax positions and related income tax contingencies and does not believe that any material uncertain tax positions exist that require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could vary from those estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

Financial Instruments and Credit Risk

Deposit concentration risk is managed by placing cash and cash equivalents with financial institutions believed by management to be creditworthy. While balances may occasionally exceed federally insured limits or include investments in uninsured money market mutual funds, management monitors these balances and has not experienced any losses to date.

Credit risk associated with contributions receivable is considered limited due to the Organization's historically high collection rates and the concentration of receivables in established third-party donation platforms that aggregate contributions from individual and corporate donors.

Investments are overseen by the Treasury Committee, and performance is periodically reviewed by the Board of Directors. The Organization invests primarily in U.S. government-backed securities and insured bank certificates of deposit. While investment values may fluctuate year to year, the Organization believes its investment policies are appropriate for maintaining liquidity and long-term financial stability.

Note 3 - Liquidity and Availability

Financial assets available for general expenditure, that is, without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the statement of financial position date, comprise the following as of December 31, 2025 and 2024:

|   | 2025         | 2024         |
|---|---------------------|---------------------|
| Cash  | $ 3,264,735        | $ 1,860,405        |
| Contributions receivable  | 328,713             | 658,500             |
| Investments   | 5,510,168           | 6,194,592           |
| Accrued interest receivable   | 24,690              | 33,930              |
| Less financial assets unavailable for general expenditures within one year, due to:           |                     |                     |
| Restriction by donor for a specific purpose   | (122,133)           | (138,342)           |
| Designation by the board for reserves   | (150,000)           | (150,000)           |
| Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year | $ 8,856,173 | $ 8,459,085 |

As part of its liquidity management, the Organization maintains reserves in interest-bearing accounts and monitors cash flows to ensure sufficient funds are available to meet operational needs. Additionally, the Organization's Board of Directors has designated certain net assets for specific programs, which limits their immediate availability for general expenditures. However, these funds may be redirected by Board action if necessary, and remain available to meet liquidity needs should circumstances require.

Note 4 – Contributions Receivable

Contributions receivable expected to be collected within one year comprise the following as of December 31, 2025 and 2024:

|                                       | 2025       | 2024       |

(With Summarized Comparative Financial Information for the Year Ended December 31, 2024)

Note 5 – Investments

In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the Organization uses the following fair value hierarchy to categorize the inputs used in measuring the fair value of its investments. The input levels used for valuation are not necessarily indicative of risk but represent the degree of market observability:

- Level 1 – Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities, such as publicly traded stocks and mutual funds.
- Level 2 – Observable inputs other than Level 1, including quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active or inactive markets, interest rate yield curves, matrix pricing for fixed-income securities, or market corroborated pricing.
- Level 3 – Unobservable inputs reflecting the Organization’s own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. These may include internally developed models, uncorroborated pricing data, or significant management judgment regarding liquidity, discount rates, and other factors.

The Organization utilizes market data and pricing services to determine fair values where available and appropriate. Investments measured at fair value on a recurring basis are classified within the fair value hierarchy based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the valuation.

Investments are reported at fair value and consisted of the following as of December 31, 2025 and 2024:

| 2025                              | Total        | Level 1 | Level 2      | Level 3 |

Note 6 – Net Assets with Donor Restrictions

Net assets with donor restrictions represent contributions that are restricted by donors for specific programs or purposes. The Organization considers such restrictions to be satisfied when the related expenditures are incurred in accordance with the donor's stipulations.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, net assets with donor restrictions consisted of the following:

|   | 2025              | 2024              |
|---|-------------------|-------------------|
| Subject to expenditure for specified purpose:   |                   |                   |

| Total net assets with donor restrictions | $ 122,133 | $ 138,342 |

Net assets were released from donor restrictions during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 as the Organization incurred expenditures that fulfilled donor-imposed restrictions:

|  | 2025             | 2024              |
|--|------------------|-------------------|
| Satisfaction of purpose restrictions                     | $ 16,209        | $ 103,171        |
